

TWO NEW PDI CLE PROGRAMS ANNOUNCED

PDI is proud to offer two new CLE programs this fall focusing on workers' compensation.

The "Advanced Workers' Compensation Practice Symposium" is set for November 12, 2009 at the Omni William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh and for November 18, 2009 at the Union League in Philadelphia. These programs are for workers' compensation counsel and claim representatives.

Moderated by PDI Workers' Compensation Committee Chairperson Andrew Greenberg, the Symposium will include a series of speakers, including the Honorable David B. Torrey, who will provide a full day program addressing complex and current workers' compensation issues. Six substantive and one ethics CLE credits are available.

Registration materials will be available soon. Mark your calendar and plan to attend!
